A hearty co-operation of parents and teachers, and of parents and pupils, and the frequent visitation of parents to the school-room are much to be desired, as they aid materially in the welfare of the school. the encouragement, interest, and discipline of the scholars

Respectfully,

OLIE M GEORGE,

L. A. DUNBAR.

School Board.

SECOND PRIMARY SCHOOL.

Miss A. Florence Bishop taught the spring and fall terms and one week of the winter term. At the end of the first week of the winter term the First Primary teacher, Miss Martha T. Bailey, resigned her position. Owing to the falling off of attendance it was decided by the School Board not to engage another teacher, but to unite the smaller pupils into one Primary school, and Miss Bishop carried on the work. The statistics given for the winter term of the Second Primary will be those of the undivided Primary School.
